

Industrial Integrity Solutions LLC: where its political contributions went

IIS is a company on the Previti chart; see page 2 for how a 2019 Pasadena commercial cannabis permit application described it.

Of the $717,200 Industrial Integrity Solutions (Previti's marijuana (cannabis) company) gave to 18 committees from 2019 to 2026, $629,300 went to Rancho Cucamonga-area and local races (17 gifts to 13 committees), and $87,900 went to state-level campaigns and parties (5 gifts). The 18 count the four Committee for Ethical Government (a political committee) committees separately; combined, they make 15.

Important context

- The licensed cannabis shops reported no political contributions in the state and local filings searched; no donor listed IIS as employer.
- Most of these gifts also appear on Previti's major-donor reports (FPPC filer ID 1404572), so they are the same dollars, not extra.
- Source: public campaign filings (Cal-Access, NetFile), as reported through 10/28/2026; retrieved 10/29/2026.

Money to Rancho Cucamonga officials from groups after IIS money reached them

Solid green = reported as given by IIS. Dashed + leaf* = later payments by those groups (timing only, not traceable IIS dollars).

How to read the dashed lines

* Leaf with asterisk: paid by a group after it, or a group that funded it, reported receiving IIS money, so these funds are associated with marijuana (cannabis) money. Committee funds are pooled; filings do not show which dollars were passed on. These groups had many other givers: the amounts are what they gave or spent after the IIS money arrived, not IIS dollars. Who IIS is: according to a 2019 Pasadena commercial cannabis permit application [S-020, p.18], Previti "established IIS to provide financing and other operational controls for each business entity in his family of commercial cannabis businesses." His letter in the same application [S-020, p.6] refers to marijuana facilities "that I financed, constructed, and operate in Adelanto."
