See the full disclaimer at rcwatchdog.pages.dev/disclaimer. Each giver to a committee is not tied to Previti just by being listed.

Worth thinking about: James L. Previti and his companies gave $2,422,621 in 144 entries to 91 candidates and committees from 2010 to 2026 [S-041, S-042, S-043, S-044, S-045, S-046, S-047, S-048, S-050, S-051, S-052, S-053, S-054, S-070, S-140, S-141, S-143, S-144, S-146, S-149, S-150, S-152, S-153, S-154, S-155, S-156, S-157, S-158, S-159, S-160, S-161, S-242, S-271] (every entry and its source is in the full list). When one person gives through several company names, how easy is it for voters to see the total?

Worth thinking about: Industrial Integrity Solutions (Previti's marijuana (cannabis) company) gave $629,300 of this money in 17 entries [S-043, S-144, S-146, S-156, S-157, S-161] (see the full list). Would a voter reading a mailer know a marijuana (cannabis) company helped pay for it?

Worth thinking about: The largest recipient is the SB County GOP (San Bernardino County Republican Party): $428,000 from FH II Homebuilders (Previti's homebuilding company) and Industrial Integrity Solutions (Previti's marijuana (cannabis) company) [S-242, S-282, S-283]. Once money is pooled in a party account, no filing shows which candidates it ends up helping. Who should voters ask?
